South Ky. Medical Association
Convened Tuesday.

Learned Papers By Scientific Men

—Reception at Latham
Hotel.

When the South Kentucky Medical Association met in this city last year, the members were so pleased with their welcome and with the hospitality of Hopkinsville people, and the courtesy of Hopkinsville physicians that they decided to hold their meeting here this year.

The local Medical Society had made extensive preparations for the reception and entertainment of their visiting brethren. Neither pains nor expense have been spared in the efforts to make the distinguished visitors' second trip to Hopkinsville no less memorable than the first. The efforts of the doctors in this direction have been seconded by the citizens who have given the learned gentlemen a warm welcome to the city.

The first session was held yesterday morning in the court house, and was devoted exclusively to the business of the Association. The session was opened with prayer by Rev. H. D. Smith. Mayor Dabney welcomed the doctors to the city in an address full of happy expressions. The response was delivered by Dr. Gayle G. Moseley, on behalf of the Christian County Medical Society.

The reports of the committee on arrangements, the Secretary, the Treasurer were then heard, after which applications for membership were passed on, and miscellaneous business dispatched.

The published program was followed at the afternoon session.

The program for to-day is as follows:

WANTED WAR HORSES.

Agent of the Government Was in the City Yesterday to Purchase Them.

Mr. Moore, representing W. R. Harrington, who recently inserted advertisements in the local papers to the effect that he would be here on Tuesday, May 24, to inspect horses with a view to purchase for the United States Cavalry service, was at C. H. Layne's stable all day yesterday.

Score of people from every section of the county, and many from Trigg and Todd counties, brought in horses of every color and condition, hoping to find in Uncle Sam's agent a willing purchaser and an easy mark. The vast majority of them were doomed to disappointment. The agent of the Government is pretty well posted when it comes to horseflesh, and there is a standard in weight, height, measurements, etc., to which the prospective army stud must conform if he can hope to "smell the battle."

And again, your Uncle Sam isn't paying fancy prices for horse flesh, even in Kentucky. He is not looking for such "cattle" as Ornament, Albert, Hanover, and Proctor Knott and it is rarely that more than $50 is paid for a horse. Many are examined but few are chosen.

A great many horses were submitted for inspection yesterday and out of the entire number only eleven were purchased, the average price being $87.

Mr. Moore will leave with his Hopkinsville war horses for the historic field of Chickamauga at once.

Mustering the Third.

The Third regiment is being mustered in at a rapid rate, and will be a full-regiment United States volunteer regiment before another Sunday. Says the Courier Journal: "To-day forty-eight United States blankets were distributed to each company in the Third regiment. Each man had to sign a receipt for the blanket before it was issued to him."

Lieut. Col. J. J. Henry and two or three other members of Col. Smith's staff were put through their physical examination this morning. None of the other companies of the Third have reported ready and Capt. Ballance will hardly require any more of the regiment before long.

Bought 23 At Princeton.

Princeton, Ky., May 24.—W. R. Harrington shipped twenty-three head of horses, which he had bought here for the United States cavalry. He paid an average price of $83.50 per head.

Will Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Long will entertain Friday evening May 27, complimentary to their charming guest, Miss Mamie McCullagh, of Henderson. The event is looked forward to with much interest by the society people of the city. A number of young people from neighboring cities will be present.

Vancey Thompson.

Mr. W. B. Vancey and Miss Nancy J. Thompson, a popular couple of the Casky vicinity, will be united in wedlock at the bride's home this evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. W. L. Nourse, of this city, will officiate.

OFFICIAL DENIAL OF NAVAL BATTLE

Department At Washington Has Received No News.

Cables Have Been Cut By Americans at San Juan and Santiago De Cuba.

Dewey Holds Key to Situation at Manila—Expedition to Philippines Strengthens Sentiment for Hawaiian Annexation.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Wild rumors were presciently circulated yesterday to the effect that Sampson and Schley had met the fleet of Admiral Cervera in the Windward Passage. Embellishments were added by fertile imagination and the rumors finally had it that the New York and Iowa, of Sampson's fleet, had gone down.

All this was in spite of the continued and emphatic denials of the State and Navy Departments of any knowledge whatever of an engagement. At the close of business to-day Secretary Long said that no news of a conflict had been received.

The Government positively denies any news of the reported capture of the U. S. gunboat Albatross. The report is said in official circles to be sensational and groundless.

The Americans have cut the cables at San Juan, Porto Rico, and at Santiago de Cuba.

It is thought that the sending of the expedition to the Philippine islands, will result in the annexation of Hawaii.

Persistent Rumors of a Battle.

London, May 24.—(Special.)—Persistent rumors were in circulation here early to-day to the effect that a great naval battle has been fought in the vicinity of the Windward Passage, between the Eastern end of Cuba and the Western part of Hayti, in which both the American squadrons closed in on the Spanish Cape Verde squadron, commanded by Admiral Cervera, and completely destroyed the Spanish ships.

The London newspapers take it for granted that the ships reported yesterday by Lloyd's agent at Para, Brazil, as having arrived there at 9 o'clock on Monday morning from Rio Janeiro are the Oregon, the Marietta and the Nietheroy.

Movements of the United States Fleet.

Key West, Fla., May 24.—(Special.)—The movements of the United States fleet, which are known here, make it absolutely certain no battle has yet occurred, but an engagement is expected to take place this week. The Spanish fleet has been definitely located.

The Oregon has still not arrived here.

Dewey Still In Control.

Washington, D. C., May 24.—(Special.)—A dispatch received from Admiral Dewey says he still maintains the key to the situation. Residents fear an outbreak of Spanish soldiers. The rebel commanders are with Dewey and may render him valuable assistance. Food is scarce in Manila and panics are feared.

Meager Report of a Meeting.

New York, May 24.—(Special.)—A dispatch here reports that Admiral Cervera divided his squadron and that two Spanish cruisers had a disastrous encounter with the American Squadron under Admiral Sampson. A cablegram from Madrid says that Cervera's ships had not effected a junction.

START TO-DAY.

The Second Regiment Will Move at Once to Chickamauga.

Lexington, Ky., May 24.—It is now definitely settled that the Second Regiment, Kentucky Volunteers, will leave Lexington for Chickamauga Park, Ga., on Wednesday afternoon.

The Cincinnati Southern Railway has been instructed to arrange for the transportation of 1,016 men, 50 officers, 12 horses and the regimental baggage. Acting Commissary Quartermaster Vestal has prepared travel rations, coffee, money and ten days' field rations for the regiment.

The Secretary of War was advised to-day by Col. Gaither that the regiment has insufficient tentage, and he was informed that the necessary covering for the regiment will be furnished at point of rendezvous.

The Second will leave Lexington in a blaze of glory. The Daughters of the American Revolution will present the regiment with a handsome silken flag, which was made especially for them by a Cincinnati firm.

TWO DIVORCE SUITS.

Both Actions Are Based Upon the Ground of Abandonment.

W. V. West has brought suit in equity praying for a decree of absolute divorce from his wife, Lula West. They were married November 25, 1896, and lived together in this county until March 28, 1897, when the defendant as the plaintiff avers, left him without cause on his part and has since refused to live with him, taking up her residence with her mother.

Annie Nance asks for a dissolution of the bonds of matrimony from her husband, Isaac Nance, alleging abandonment. They were married in May, 1889. In 1892 he left her and has since lived separate from her, failing to provide means for her sustenance. The parties are colored.

Married at Court House.

Warner F. West and Dora B. Phipps, who reside in the Antioch vicinity, came in very early yesterday morning and hid themselves to the clerk's office. Mr. West purchased from Clerk Prowse a certain very necessary legal document and then the services of Judge Cansler were brought into requisition. Judge Cansler tied the knot according to statutory provisions, and the bride and groom walked forth happily.

Master Masons, Attention.

There will be a conference of the "Easter Star" degrees in Hopkinsville Lodge No. 37, A. F. & A. M., on next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All Master Masons in good standing of this or any other lodge, their wives, daughters, mothers and sisters, are most cordially invited to meet with us and join with us in this work.

By order of G. E. GRAYES, W. M. J. B. GALLAGHER, Sec'y.

Mr. Gant Returns.

The many friends of Mr. Milton Gant, Jr., who has been very sick at his father's home in Owensboro during the past four weeks, will be glad to learn that he is back in the city to resume his duties as agent for the American Express Company. Mr. Gant's health is somewhat improved, but he is still far from well.

Mr. Howell's Condition.

Mr. W. R. Howell, who was injured by a fall from his buggy Monday night, was resting easier last night, and unless some unexpected change occurs, his injuries will soon cease to be regarded as serious. It will be several days, though, under most favorable circumstances, before he can be out.

Col. J. O. Cooper returned yesterday from Graves county, where he spent several days with his brother, who has been very sick. Col. Cooper says that the crops in Graves county and in the Purchase country, which he saw during his absence, are looking extremely well and that the farmers report the most flattering outlook in many years.

BRASS BUTTONS.

Military Matters, Movements and Manuevers.

Lieut. Bassett Writes a Card and Tom Williams Recruits a Squad.

Lieut. E. B. Bassett published the following card in yesterday's Courier-Journal.

"Hopkinsville, Ky., May 24.—Please correct statement made by your Camp Collier correspondent in Saturday's paper, quoting me as saying there was talk here of hanging Gov. Bradley in effigy. I said no such thing and did not mention the Governor's name in any derogatory sense, nor did I connect my name with Capt. Feland's regarding any future action (or inaction) in reference to the State Guard or otherwise.

"I am a conservative business man of this city, and in my capacity as First Lieutenant of Company D have faithfully performed every duty, being diligently engaged in securing the recruits necessary for mustering the company into service when the trouble at Lexington arose and culminated. I was kept in ignorance of any trouble until, in response to my request for transportation for my recruits (as promised), the message came from Col. Smith: 'Can not secure transportation; company busted up.' On receiving this I dismissed recruits and left for Lexington at once, hoping to save the company, but found on arrival that my absence had been taken advantage of by the misrepresentation concerning my intentions, and the Governor had appointed Dr. Casey in my stead. In view of this nothing remained for me but to return home, though promised by Col. Smith that he would rectify the matter in any way I should suggest.

"By adhering to my duty as a citizen and a soldier, I had hoped to be exempt from newspaper controversy or card-writing, but I have been the victim of designing politicians or place-hunters, or else the mad battery for shielding others' faults. It is but simple justice that you make the corrections asked and publish the facts stated herein, which, from my high opinion of your fairness and impartiality, I confidently believe you will do.

"E. B. BASSETT."

AWAITING TRANSPORTATION.

Recruits for the New "Company D" Expecting Orders to Move.

Mr. T. J. Williams received a telegram from Lieut. Payne Saturday asking him if he could recruit twenty men for immediate enlistment in the new Company D to serve under Capt. Gaines. Williams replied that he could. Payne promised transportation for the recruits. Williams recruited the following men who are still awaiting transportation and the orders to move:

E. E. Graves, George Tutt, Jim Williams, Judson Couch, J. Stone-well Reese, Pearl Cornelius, Jim Wootton, Trabue Anderson, Jess Spiceland, J. L. Tutt, Pete Tabb, Jim Hern, Jr., Daniel Berry, M. K. Bullard, T. J. Clark, Pete McGrath, John G. Daniel, Oscar Baker, Alton Smith, Harvey Young.

Wants Ten Men.

At a late hour last night after the above had been written and was in type Mr. Williams came to the KENTUCKIAN office with the following telegram:

"Can you bring ten men on first train Wednesday will wire transportation. Answer R. C. Payne."

Mr. Williams at once wired Lieut. Payne that he could bring the recruits. If the transportation comes he will leave with his men on the 5:13 train this morning.

Col. Waterson will deliver an address to the soldiers at Lexington Friday.

Twenty-one transports are now waiting at Tampa ready to carry troops to Cuba.

The Second Regiment will move South to-day and report for duty at Chickamauga.

Of the 125,000 volunteers called for, more than 90 per cent. have already been mustered in.

Wonder what has become of the Cuban reconcentrados who were starving to death a month ago?

Another transport is loading at Mobile with arms for the men and arms for the women and children of Cuba.

The United States has decided that the anti-oleoMargerine laws in effect in many States are unconstitutional.

The Salersville cavalry troop has given notice that it will not muster in unless it is allowed to elect its own officers.

Many of the cities are having "Dewey Days." It seems that Dewey nights would be more in accordance with the fitness of things.

Volunteers were examined for three regiments of troops at Nashville and 1000 failed to pass. All of the companies are not yet full.

"If the world could only eat cotton!" exclaims a Texas writer. Can't it be ground up somehow so as to be a useful adulterant for flour?

It is believed very strongly in Europe that a secret alliance exists between Spain and France. Somebody is undoubtedly furnishing Spain with money to conduct the war.

The State encampment of the Kentucky G. A. R. is in session this week at Bowling Green. Col. Henry S. Cohn and Mr. J. W. Hammond, of Louisville, are candidates for department commander.

Maj. Gen. Merritt, who is to leave for the Philippines in a few days, has an affair of the heart to leave behind. He is engaged to Miss Laura Williams, of Chicago, a pretty girl of only 20 years of age.

Joe Mitchell, col., was lynched at Rives, Tenn., Monday. He pushed a white boy off a moving train, the fall so injuring the boy that he died shortly afterward. Mitchell was arrested but was taken from the officers and lynched before he could be gotten on the train that was to take him to jail.

Col. Vincente de Cortijo and Dr. Isidro Julian, Spanish officers, and two private soldiers, were taken from Atlanta to Key West yesterday, where they will be exchanged for two American newspaper men, Thrall and Jones. Uncle Sam threw in a couple of privates as boot in the transaction, to compliment the correspondents.

A London correspondent has discovered a cocoanut that seems to have milk in it. He says: The Canaries are practically mortgaged to France. I was credibly informed some time since that the French Government had gone so far as to offer a lump sum down. The amount mentioned was 145,000,000 francs, or roughly $30,000,000. The Canary Islands would be for France an admirable strategic and commercial base of incalculable benefit."

The Massachusetts State Unitarian Association has addressed a formal protest to Secretary Long against the further use of the motto "Remember the Maine" in the war with Spain, giving as a reason that war was declared on account of Cuban troubles and not to avenge the Maine. Many of the army crackers have "Remember the Maine" stamped on them and the soldiers are kept constantly reminded of what has become an accepted battle cry.

A Card.

I notice in the DAILY KENTUCKIAN dated Sunday, May 23d, an article which any person who knows the true circumstances which has thrown Company D into its present state, would brand as an unjust statement. I have been informed that on every hand those of us who have attempted to do our duty are censured by a majority of the people of Hopkinsville. The true state of affairs which exists can be told in a few words:

"Company D" left Hopkinsville with the fire of patriotism burning in nearly every breast, and a finer looking body of men was not seen in camp at Lexington. We won a reputation which caused us to be envied by every company on the ground. Compliments and praises from residents of Lexington were showered upon us. But our brilliant prospects were ruined in a way too well known, to be here repeated.

Through all, our Second Lieutenant, to whom every member of Company "D" is devoted, stayed with us and attended to our wants, which were very numerous. Instead of leaving the boys to look out for themselves, he could almost continually be found at the camp, ever doing something to lighten the hearts of those who, of a necessity, were deeply distressed.

Our former Captain was removed, and none disputes but that the Governor did his duty in this respect. Nor Gaines, was appointed to succeed him, and no one disputes the fact that he did not do his duty when he failed to appoint a man from the Pennyrite, regardless of the fact that the man he did appoint is a capable drill master, and seemingly a gentleman.

Instead of putting a full company in our place, which could have been easily done, as there was one offered, and for no other reason than to show Lieut. Payne his services and ability were duly appreciated, he was left in command of the old company and told that he would retain the 2nd Lieutenantcy, provided he and Capt. Gaines would organize a company in a certain length of time. To do this, it was necessary to enlist the services of those who fell under obligations to Lieut. Payne. Had we left him he would have lost his commission, and a new company would have been brought in. Lieut. Payne, the man, who, in our time of need, when our hearts were nearly breaking, and our Captain, whom we all loved, and whom we would have died for, was treating us with contempt, stayed with us and did his best to dispel the gloom, which, like the "Angel of Death," was hovering over us.

And now the question arises, who was it our duty to follow? Should we follow the man who was the cause of our sorrows and disappointments, boys who had loved him so,—shall we follow him home in disgrace, or shall we follow our Lieutenant, who has been unwavering in the fulfillment of his duties, with the stars and stripes of our country floating gently over us,—proof that we were doing our duty." E. P. ZIMMER.

WRECK AT COLESBURG.

John Henley Killed and Three Others More Or Less Injured.

Elizabethtown, Ky., May 24.—Monday morning at 1 o'clock the second section of freight train No. 16 collided with hill engine 429 at Colesburg while it was taking water at the foot of Muldraugh's Hill. Both engines and seventeen cars were totally demolished.

John Henley, a brakeman on the freight, was hurt so badly he died within an hour.

Those injured are: James Fitzpatrick, hill engineer; ribs broken, shoulders and arms bruised.

Engineer Clark Rae, freight train; legs bruised and badly scalded.

Robert Clark, brakeman; head cut and bruised, right arm broken. All trains were delayed nine hours, but the track was cleared by 9 a. m.

NEWSBOYS' BAND.

Will Accompany the First Regiment to the Front.

Louisville, Ky., May 24.—The Newsboys' Band, of Louisville, will probably go to the front with the First Regiment, Kentucky State Guard, and be known as the First Regiment Band. The boys volunteered some time ago, but on account of their age and height were rejected. However, a special effort has been made, and the following telegram was received this morning by Colonel Henry S. Cohn, muster office for Kentucky:

"Have arranged with the United States Government to accept the band. Lieutenant Howard will report to him for instructions."

JOHN H. CARTER, JR.,

"Col. Commanding First Regiment." The arrangement is to accept all boys who obtain the written consent of their parents, other qualifications being waived. As most of the boys are orphans and live at the Newsboys' Home through their own efforts, this practically insures the band going. It has been organized for three years, has given concerts in many Kentucky towns, and in musical ability is up to the standard. All the boys are under age, being between 15 and 18.

Kentucky Universalist Convention.

The Annual Universalist Convention will be held this week at the Universalist church in this city, commencing Friday May 27th, and continuing three days.

All friends of the cause are earnestly requested to be in attendance at all meetings. Let your light shine.

To all churches of the city and their respective pastors, the church extends a most hearty invitation to attend all devotional services.

The invitation is also extended to everybody.

Program will appear later.

We will be at the mouth of the Locust lane, near Beverly, Ky., on Monday, May 23, 1898, at 9 a. m., to give specifications to those who desire to bid on contract for grading, metaling, and re-metaling the Palmyra road from the end of Palmyra pike to Liberty church.

"REMEMBER THE MAINE."

(BY VERA.)

On Havana's wide bay did our battle-ship float,
While its three hundred seamen thought danger remote;
With no evil intention, they seemed to deceive,
And low treach'ry in Spain they were loth to believe.

But when darkness had deepened, in slumber they lay,
Safely riding at anchor, they thought, on that bay;
Never dreaming of evils there hid in the deep,
Where the low-swalling billows seemed almost asleep.

All the storm-winds were hush'd into peaceful repose,
And a tropical breeze o'er the waters arose;
In its mission of peace there that vessel did ride,
While it rocked to and fro on the swell of the tide.

But a bitterness burned with a merciless hate,
So vengeful in some that they plotted the fate
Of that ship—that seemed only menacing to Spain,
So they slyly determined to blow up the Maine.

In a moment, unwarned, were the forces unseen,
Set in motion through spite, void of honor, and mean;
While a merciless cruelty prompted the deed,
Never caring, methinks, as to what it might lead.

From their slumbers of peace, in an instant was hur'd,
(In a way that gave shock to the civilized world.)
That crew, unto death—Christian people would scorn,
Since a high sense of honor 'mong nations was born.

By the hand of a savage no crueler deed
Ever made the great heart of humanity bleed;
Revolting the motive, unreasoning and black,
For its wild waves of woe they can never call back.

Down the ages to come will that record of crime
Mar the hist'ry of Spain, till the wind-up of time;
Through the cons uncounted, will quiver that groan,
For which no surrender can never atone.

'Twas a shock to the civilized nations afar,
Who in sympathy felt the deep quiver and jar;
Now the towers of absolute monarchy sway,
Till methinks they'll soon totter and crumble away.

In the march of our arms will new liberties rise,
As oppression gives way and intolerance dies;
May our Banner of Freedom, here flung to the breeze,
Soon float in all lands, on all oceans and seas.

Now, ashamed to acknowledge, or even condemn,
Though the world says the guilt justly rests upon them;
And an ocean of blood cannot wash out the stain,
Of dishonor and guilt, for the wreck of the Maine.

That woe! upheaval dug tyranny's grave,
And that merciless monarchy nothing can save;
Now the grasp that has long made humanity groan,
Will slacken, till earth shall new liberties own.
Hopkinsville, Ky., May 24, 1898.

CONFERENCE ADJOURNS.

Will Meet Again Four Years From Now.

Baltimore, May 24.—After eighteen days of deliberation the thirtieth quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, adjourned at a late hour last night. Three sessions were held during the day in order to clear the calendar of the more important business. Bishops Candler, Morrison and Fitzgerald presided at to-day's session.

The Publishing Interests Committee recommended that those editors and agents connected with the publishing houses receive a salary of $3,000 instead of the $2,500 hitherto paid them, which was agreed to. It was voted to open the next conference on the first Wednesday in May, 1902. The place will be selected by a committee in a couple of years. The committee on Entertainment for the next conference was appointed as follows: Rev. A. G. Brown, of Virginia; Rev. T. M. Finnie, of Missouri; Mr. H. Y. McCord, of Georgia; Mr. B. M. Burgher, of Texas, and Mr. Robert Magruder, of Baltimore.

The lively discussion on the subject of evangelists which was held on Sunday had an echo this morning when the Rev. Julius E. Wright, of Harrodsburg, Ky., and a few others entered a protest to the action of the conference in deciding that evangelists could not hold meetings in churches without the consent of pastors. Dr. Collins Denny, the Rev. Dr. E. E. Hoss and the Rev. W. L. Nelms were appointed to reply to it.

Miss Castleman As a Nurse.

One of the most beautiful nurses who will go to the front is Alice Castleman, of Louisville, Ky. Under the banner of the Red Cross, in the simple garb of the sisterhood, this petted society girl will bravely endure the hardships of the battlefield.

Miss Castleman was the acknowledged beauty and belle of the Patriarch Bell last year. As the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Lunnier, of Madison avenue, she was introduced to the "400." Society immediately captivated to her wonderful beauty, and she was the toast of the season.

Alice Castleman's gifts of mind and person are hers by heritage. The bluest blood of Kentucky flows in her veins. She is the daughter of Gen. John Breckinridge Castleman, regarded as one of the handsomest men in the State. Her mother, who was Miss Alice Barbee, of Nashville, Tenn., as a girl was a noted belle and beauty. The Castlemanes are very wealthy.

"I wish to accompany my father, brother and cousins right into the thickest of the conflict," she said to a World reporter. "I have begged my father to let me go to New York and take a few lessons in the duties of an army nurse, but he has never consented."

"The truth is, I mean what I say and intend to join the hospital corps. You see, my father has already volunteered, and the Louisville Legion would be among the first troops to be actually engaged in the land forces. Then, my brothers would go, too, as they are members of the Legion."—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

COINS OF ALUMINUM.

English Public Believe They Would Be Very Acceptable.

Aluminum has acquired so rapid a popularity for a variety of purposes by reason of its lightness, its cleanliness and its brightness that it is remarkable it should not have been used before for the smaller denominations of coins as a substitute for the far heavier and dirtier copper and bronze.

To the people who have to carry large sums of money in small denominations the change—for the change is bound to come sooner or later in our own country—will be most welcome. A man presented by the conductor of an omnibus with 11 pence as change for a shilling invariably grumbles at the weight which he is condemned to carry about with him, and a woman equally resents the excessive weight which is added to her purse by a similar transaction.

The adoption of the aluminum coinage would change the whole of this and make the acquisition of pennies a pleasure rather than otherwise, for the metal is far brighter even than silver, and retains its luster for a much longer time.

It will no doubt be urged that the use of a silver-colored metal coinage would lead to all sorts of frauds being perpetrated on the unwary, just as there were at the time when silver three-half-penny pieces or "quitties," as it was called, were withdrawn from circulation in Jamaica, and nickel pennies and half-pennies were substituted for it. Then the negroes were frequently defrauded by the unscrupulous, who palmed off pennies as half-crowns and the half-pennies as shillings. But in a very short time the negro got to understand that silver coins were melted at the mint, and the dishonest people ceased having a good time of it. There is, however, an additional natural advantage in the use of aluminum, for its weight is so different that it would seem to be an impossibility for anyone to make a mistake in the matter.—Pearson's Weekly.

TAI WON KUN.

Corea Boasts the Wickedest Villain That Ever Lived.

The recent death of Tai Won Kun, father of the king of Corea, simplifies that country's politics. He was probably the wickedest villain on earth, and for 50 years he had been at the bottom or the top of all the mischief that has occurred in the Hermit kingdom. He was regent during the minority of the king, who inherited the throne from a childless uncle, and ruled with the most brutal despotism for a quarter of a century. It was while he was at the head of affairs that we had our little war with Corea, which resulted in opening the country to foreigners. He was the foe of all forms of progress, and particularly hostile to missionaries and modern improvements. He murdered thousands of people who stood in his way or refused to bend to his will, and it took three years for the government to get rid of him after the king became of age. "Twice he was the prime mover in plots to assassinate his own son, and three times he attempted the assassination of the queen. The last attempt was successful in 1895.

The old scoundrel lived in a palace a few miles outside the city, surrounded by a double guard, one of his own, in whom he had confidence, to protect him against the vengeance of those he had injured, and another provided by the government to prevent him from leaving the place. He seems to have died a natural death, and it is almost a miracle, for no other man on earth was so viciously hated.
